Dear Mr. Casey:

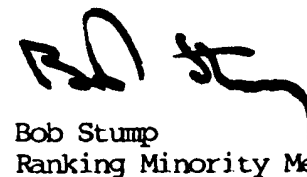

The conference agreement reached by the House and Senate conferees on the Federal Employees' Retirement System Act of 1986 (H.R. 2672) will provide the excellent retirement benefits that Central Intelligence Agency employees deserve for their fine service to the Nation. The legislation also will contribute toward meeting the Agency's personnel management and security improvement objectives.

Please extend to Messrs. Robert Magee, of your Office of Personnel the Committee's appreciation for their special efforts to assist us in developing the conference agreement.
